I am so sorry for the sadness you are feeling today but at the same time joy filled tears knowing Aggie is celebrating in her heavenly home with her loved ones. Also knowing you will see her again brings comfort to you each day. May God bless each of you for the love shown her as she waited for the day the Lord called her home. Amen.

“ I am sorry for the loss the family has to endure. Agnes was my aunt's sister and many times would see her at family get-togethers. She was always watching us kids to make sure we didn't get into anything at all. She will be missed. I offer up prayers and love to all of the family.
