“ Alice was definitely a light in this world that shown brightly for the Lord! Her actions always spoke louder than her words. People are generally known for what they do publicly, but it is their private behavior that tells the most about them! I witnessed this personally with Alice when she was caring for Yolanda. When I would visit her, I was always extremely impressed by the kindness, patience and love that she showed Yolanda and exhibited always with her. Alice was a beautiful lady ... both on the outside as well as on the inside. She was always beautifully dressed with coordinated matching outfits. It was obvious she had an extensive wardrobe that was well thought out and well planned. She will be deeply missed by all here on earth, but welcomed and applauded by all of those in Heaven. With sincere sympathy and prayers, Amelia and Carroll Smith
