

Amanda Alice DeJarnette Crews

November 25, 1926 - September 14, 2019

Amanda Alice DeJarnette Crews, 92, of 352 Iona Road, Gretna died Saturday, September 14, 2019 at Gretna Health and Rehabilitation Center. She was the wife of the late Clyde Stenson Crews.

She was born November 25, 1926 in Halifax County, a daughter of the late Jesse DeJarnette and Sophia Marshall DeJarnette. She was a member of Straightstone Baptist Church and a retired cafeteria service employee of the Pittsylvania County School System with twenty-five years of service.

An accomplished seamstress, Amanda enjoyed making quilts and dresses for family members. She loved cooking for the family, always asking, "Y'all done eat?" when anyone arrived. Nobody ever left the home hungry. In addition, she deeply loved gardening and canning. But her greatest love was her family while being a devoted wife, mother, and grandmother.

She is survived by a son, Jackie Thomas Crews of Nathalie; a daughter, Betty C. Toler of Clarksville; five grandchildren, fourteen great grandchildren, and one great great grandchild.

She was preceded in death by a son, Clyde Wayne Crews and daughter, Wanda Crews.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, September 18, 2019 at Straightstone Baptist Church by the Rev. Jim Fox with interment to follow in the church cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the residence from 4:00 until 7:00 p.m., Tuesday.

I had no idea! I had not saw aunt Amanda for 3-4 years but I spent a lot of my childhood at her house. Many of my fondest memories include “ain Manda”. I laughed while reading her obituary because the first words out of her mouth any time you went to her house was “Have you ate yet?” Such a dear woman. I have no doubt that she is standing in the presence of Jesus right now.
