Your sudden leaving this earth has saddened the hearts of family and friends. Heaven has welcomed a beautiful person home. One day there will be a GREAT FAMILY REUNION as we gather around His banquet table for a celebration.

“ Panda Bear is our favorite youngest niece on Chad's side...our memories are vast and mostly humorous. One of Chad's favorite is from when it rains, he used to hold the girls under the runoff from the roof at his parents house. It seems fitting that it is raining today from that experience and how sad we all are. One of my favorites was taking the EMT class with Panda, Sue Ellen and Todd - she would have stopped for a huge coffee and we would threaten to tie her in her seat if she didn't stop bouncing around. She has a special place in Chad's heart - they had quite a few tender moments talking about whatever was going on and what advice he would offer. Our world is a little dimmer with her not here.

“ When I think of Amanda, I think of light. She was a light in this life to me and anyone she has met. Her smile and laugh are something I have and will always remember about her. Working with her was a joy and she was more like a friend or family than a coworker. Everyday with her was fun and she always had the best stories to tell about her family and her beloved dogs. I'll never forget when at a hair appointment 2 weeks before my wedding, my hair turned out almost grey and Amanda swooped in with her fantastic hair skills and saved the day. I can truly say I am a better person from knowing Amanda. I pray for her family and especially for her husband and daughter during this time. May her light be something we all carry forever.

“ Amanda was the sweetest young Lady. She would always greet me with the biggest smile and the happiest face that could be. If I would drive up to the window and she'd see me, she would come out just to say hi. She was a ray of sunshine all the time. I for one will surely miss her and her smile. Fly high with the angels and one day we will meet again.
