“ Andrew was my brother-in-law and as Elaine told me, her soul mate. They were always together, did everything as one soul. Andrew had an outrageous sense of humor and he loved Jiminy Cricket. I would always look for Jiminy Cricket memorabilia for him. I traveled for work and one of my offices was Richmond. I decided that I would surprise Elaine and Andrew and make a surprise visit. I called from the Food Lion parking lot because I couldn't remember how to get to the house. Andrew answered the phone. I asked him if he had eaten dinner because I was going to get Chinese Food. His response was: "Why do you ask. Do you think I can't afford food"? He laughed and I said no, I am stranded down here in the Food Lion Parking lot with Chinese Food. He laughed the Andrew laugh and told me he was on his way with a stick and was going to chase me and spank me for not telling him. He arrived, jumped out of the Van, shaking a big stick. Of course he didn't spank me but but I have the stick and treasure it. On it he had written "OH, oh, whack a mole, whack a mole" with three hearts and Love, Andrew Ferguson. I have a hundred stories but they live in my heart. I will miss you and our trips to Concrete World. R.I.P. 🤪🤪🤪

“ I am just learning of the news of Andrew's passing and I am so sad to know this. My heart goes out to dear Elaine and the family. Although in recent years our lives have been apart, Andrew was a lifelong friend. I first met Andrew when he entered Elaine's life and he and I were the best of friends. Andrew only wanted to enjoy life and love those around him. He was not a materialistic guy, he put much more emphasis on the important things that money can't buy. He had the biggest heart and he could always be counted on. He loved to laugh, and we shared ALOT of laughter. I will never forget his unique laugh, and how he could always see a lighter side of situations. I will always remember his LUV truck that took us on so many adventures. Andrew was a kind and gentle man, all animals loved him, and dogs easily found his soul before any people could. Andrew loved Elaine. My heart shares in her loss.

“ I wake up wondering how I will ever live a day without hearing your voice. I'm forever grateful for all the times you took the punch for me, standing up for me, running away with me and comforting me. I'll miss your voice until the day we see each other again. Rest now and know I love you and will miss you dearly. Christine
