“ Betty Carwile - Anna's love of sewing and embroidery brought the two of us together, we shared many hours and days looking at patterns and fabric, deciding what to embroider next. She was an inspiration to me and a very loving person. I will miss Anna greatly.

“ Remembering Anna from her & her husband’s days at Central Baptist Church. She wore many hats. A talented seamstress she made costumes for the puppet ministry. A lovely lady with a lovely smile. Great cook who would make homemade candies & bring them to the First National Branch bank. Thoughts and prayers to her family especially at this time of year.

“ Family,

Anna was a sweet lady. I will always remember her delicious pound cakes and homemade rolls. We looked forward to those at our church dinners. She will be missed.

*I have so many fond memories of our sweet straight talking Anna. Quilt and other sewing classes together with Anna and our Rebekah, Christmas at our home in Hurt and Harrisonburg are only a few. Bible study and long Bible discussions at Hurt were some of the best. You always knew where she stood on everything. She was a very strong woman and she had a powerful love you Bobby. When Norma came along she expanded that love to Norma. I will miss my very talented pal. Anna, you get to see the face of Jesus before I do. I'll see you in the throne room, right at the feet of Jesus just like you said. Save me a seat!
