“ Dear Steve, A friend from ASG, now CACI, in Dahlgren shared this with me. I am truly sorry to hear of Anne's passing. I have the sweetest memories of working and spending fun times with Anne. I am so glad she was able to meet and enjoy your daughter's marriage and grandchildren with you. Anja, I'll never forget your mother sharing with me how precious you were to her and how much you enriched her life and capacity to love. I'm sure sharing special moments with your family, especially her grandchildren was deeply fulfilling for her. Sending heartfelt prayers. Laura Nelson Streicher, Fairfield IA

“ To Steve, Anja, and all of Anne's family,
It broke my heart to learn of Anne's sudden passing last Saturday. She was my best friend from elementary school and I thought of her as my best friend still. I loved her dearly and know that it was as much a shock for you as it was for me. She was a genuinely sweet and gracious lady and I always looked forward to hearing from her. She was very proud of her family and loved you all very much. When I think of her now, I see her smile and hear her laughter. I wish that I could say or do something to take away the pain of her loss and would do so if only I could. Please know that you are all in my thoughts and prayers each day. If there's anything at all that I can do to assist you from here, please let me know. Steve has my contact information, if needed.
