

Barbara Anne Kilbourn

January 7, 1954 - April 9, 2024

With heavy hearts and fond memories, we bid farewell to Barbara Kilbourn, a remarkable soul who touched countless lives with kindness, laughter and an unwavering generosity that knew no bounds. Barbara passed away peacefully on Tuesday, April 9, 2024, leaving behind a legacy of love and laughter that will forever resonate in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Born to James and Margaret Kilbourn on January 7, 1954 with an infectious smile and a heart full of compassion, she embraced life with an unparalleled zest for living. She never met a stranger, effortlessly weaving connections and friendships wherever she went. Her magnetic personality drew people in, creating a tapestry of relationships that spanned communities and generations.

Barbara had a gift for humor, and her quick wit and playful spirit could brighten even the darkest of days. Whether through a well-timed joke, a silly prank, or a heartfelt story, she had a remarkable ability to lift the spirits of those around her. Her laughter was contagious, filling every room she entered with joy and warmth. Beyond her infectious laughter, Barbara was a pillar of support for those in need. She possessed an innate sense of empathy and compassion, always ready to lend a helping hand or offer a listening ear to anyone who sought solace or guidance. Her acts of kindness were countless, and her impact on the lives she touched immeasurable.

Barbara lived life to the fullest, cherishing every moment and embracing each new experience with open arms. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life - from sharing a meal with loved ones to exploring new places and cultures. Her adventurous spirit knew no bounds, and she approached each day with an optimism and enthusiasm that inspired all who knew her. Though Barbara may no longer walk among us, her spirit will continue to live on in the countless lives she touched. Her legacy of love, laughter, and selflessness will serve as a beacon of hope and inspiration for years to come. In honoring Barbara's memory, let us celebrate the profound impact she had on our lives and strive to carry forward her legacy of kindness, compassion, and joy. May we remember Barbara not with tears of sorrow, but with smiles of gratitude for the precious gift of her presence in our lives.

She is survived by her loving wife, Tamara Barbour; one sister, Mary Redlus and her husband, Stanley; one brother, Jeff Huzway and his wife, Linda; one grandson, Brandon Ditto; four great-grandchildren, Brandy Ditto, Kaleigh Ditto, Bryan Letchford and Brandon Ditto, Jr.; her mother-in-law, Jane Barbour; one brother-in-law, Chuck Barbour; and her special cousin, Lya Walker and her husband, Devon.

Though gone from our sight, Barbara will forever remain in our hearts, a shining example of the beauty of a life lived with love and laughter. Memorial service arrangements are to be announced. All who were touched by Barbara's kindness and humor are invited to join in celebrating their remarkable life.

Rest in peace, dear Barbara. You will be deeply missed, but your spirit will live on in the countless lives you have enriched along your journey.
