

Bettie Nester Moon

August 8, 1923 - January 3, 2011

Bettie Mae Nester Moon, 87, formerly of Hurt, received her final healing and went to be with the Lord on Monday, January 3, 2011 at Brandon Oaks Rehabilitation Center, Roanoke. She was the wife of the late William Claude Moon. She was born August 8, 1923 in Surry County, North Carolina a daughter of the late Rev. James Madison Nester and Dora King Nester. She was a member of Edge Hill Baptist Church for seventy-five years, was involved in the Women's Missionary Union and was a strong Christian who inspired others with her grace and strength. She enjoyed being a hairstylist and went on to operate her own cosmetology school, Vista School of Cosmetology in Altavista. Bettie took loving care of her husband who was ill for many years while also being ill herself, but kept a great attitude and always put God first. Her life was a legacy of trusting God, no matter what. She will be greatly missed but rejoiced that she is resting with God. A special thank you to the wonderful staff at Brandon Oaks Retirement who took great care of her. She is survived by one son, Don Moon of Hurt; one daughter, Ann Brown and her husband Danny of Roanoke; one granddaughter, Kristen Rocha and her husband Juninho; one great grandson, Aiden Rocha, all of Roanoke; and one sister, Annie Nester Stevens of Stewartsville. She was preceded in death by seven brothers, Tommy, Howard, Frank, Mac, John, George and James Nester; and three sisters, Virginia Nester Lea, Lois Nester Bradner and Ella Belle Nester Worsham. A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, January 6, 2011 at Edge Hill Baptist Church by the Rev. Chris

Brooks and Rev. Billy Robertson with interment to follow in the church cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7-8:30 p.m., Wednesday at Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista. The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider Edge Hill W. M. U. Missionary Fund, 4321 Level Run Road, Hurt, VA 24563.
