“ Gloria,

I am so sorry to hear about your beautiful mother and that I just found out today. My heart is breaking for you. We shared so much together about your mother and how beautiful she is inside and out. I know you will miss her deeply. I think He blessed you with her loving soul and blessed me when we became friends. She lived a long and wonderful life with you always there for her. And I loved that you shared her with me all these years. I'm still keeping you in my prayers Gloria with love.

“ What a beautiful lady on the inside and outside, loved her giggle! We enjoyed having her next door for evening visits for the past 3 years. We always talked about celebrating her 100th birthday, she will now celebrate in heaven. We always asked her what her secret was to a long healthy life, she always smiled and said well I am not sure ?? But she assured us it wasn't broccoli! Haha... Sweet, funny, Christian lady that we should all strive to be like as we not only grieve her but celebrate her life as a wonderful lady!
Prayers and Hugs to her family and friends at this sad time, may warm and funny memories of her comfort you.

“ Nancy Blodgett - I remember the great dinner I had at her house one time when I came to visit Amy. She was a good cook. Oh, and driving by her house seeing her mowing the lawn. I was always so amazed at what she could do at her age.

“Mama Beulah" was such a special blessing to me and so many others. Her beautiful smile was like sunshine when ever I saw her. Her love of God's word was evident by her kind spirit. I am glad I had the opportunity to get to know this precious lady. She will be greatly missed.
