“ Beverly and I grew up together: same church, Sunday School, dance class, cheerleading, youth group and much more! My mom accused me of spending more time with the Tyrees than with my own family. One of my favorite stories happened on the an eighth grade bus trip to Busch Gardens. A group of us were playing truth or dare. Bev leaned over and whispered in my ear, "Dare Chris Angell to kiss me." We all know how that turned out!!! Bev I will think of you and all we shared often. Godspeed dear friend.

Chris, so sorry for your loss. High school sweethearts, I can see that. Just keep all the fun times you both experienced and it will bring a smile to your face. You always had a smile and remembered employees names at klopman as our plant manager. That says alot about you and your life.
