“ Daddy,

*You and mama were my rock, and my heroes. As you know, I was your TOMBOY,. I will not ever forget the time that you told me that I was born with a soft ball, bat, and softball glove in my hand. You played ball with me for so many years that I could not even remember how long you did this for and with me. Then there came one day that you decided to give those duties to your nephew, Cary Eades. Then of course Cary took me under his wings for the rough part of playing softball with me. Cary would give anything to know what a softball player Lindsey Michelle turned out to be. But most of all Daddy, you took care of your wife, and 5 children, better than any one human could ever do with Lane Company's pay. You loved all of us with everything that was in your precious little heart, and then some. You were the best husband, daddy, granddaddy, and great granddaddy, there ever was and ever could be. If we could have you back with no sickness ever and pain free, that would be the best gift that GOD could ever give anyone. DADDY I AM GOING TO MISS YOU MORE THAN LIFE ITSELF. I am going to come to HEAVEN and join you one of these days. YOU ARE THE BESTEST DADDY EVER. I LOVE YOU FOREVER AND EVER DADDY. THERE IS NOT ENOUGH ROOM ON HERE FOR ME TO EXPRESS MY FEELINGS LIKE I REALLY WANT TO. GOD PLEASE TAKE OF MY DADDY. I LOVE YOU, AND RESPECT YOU DADDY. I know I have repeated this over and over, but I DO LOVE YOU FOREVER DADDY, I DO, I DO, I DO LOVE YOU DADDY. FOREVER LOVE,
YOUR OLDEST CHILD AND DAUGHTER,
SARAH MOORE*

“ This earthly world lost a gem but the heavenly world gained a diamond yesterday! What a precious man he was and we felt so very blessed to even be in his presence. If you ever had the opportunity to sit with him you could feel the love he had for his family, you could witness the work ethic he had just through his conversation but it was God's love that shone out of him the most and that's what he calls us to do go out into this world and spread this word. It's a loss for his loved ones here to feel the loss of emptiness and i pray for God's strength as they face all that's ahead of them. I rejoice also today that he his reunited with his passed loved ones especially Kendall his dear grandson. Rest in sweet peace.

Love and prayers to you all
