“ Carolyn was one of the nicest women I have ever had the privilege of knowing. I met Carolyn through her son, Mike, and she welcomed me into her home no questions asked and treated me like I was family. Then welcomed Jess and Kaydon. We are all grateful we had the chance to be a part of her special life. So down-to-earth, honest and would do anything for you. She made a wonderful pan of brownies too! We will miss her dearly.

“ Carolyn touched my heart in so many ways. I had the pleasure to meet this special lady as a Home Health nurse. No matter how bad she was feeling she always had a smile for me. Yes , Carolyn was my patient but she was a dear friend first. I will miss her so very much. My prayers are with her husband and family. May they find comfort knowing that Carolyn is in Gods loving arms.
