

Carrie Lula Bell

January 26, 1930 - August 17, 2013

Carrie Lula Bell, 83, of Blackstone and formerly of Altavista died Saturday, August 17, 2013 at Heritage Hall Nursing Home in Blackstone.

She was born January 26, 1930 in Campbell County, a daughter of the late Sam Bell and Ada Callahan Bell. She was a member of Penuel Baptist Church, an avid doll collector and enjoyed meeting and greeting all her fellow residents and friends at Heritage Hall.

She is survived by her sister, Jane Bell Myers of Blackstone and a number of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by two brothers, Joe and Irvin Bell.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Wednesday, August 21, 2013 at Finch and Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Carlton Gunter with interment to follow in Altavista Memorial Park.

The family will receive friends one hour prior to the service at Finch and Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider Penuel Baptist Church Building Fund, 2770 Wards Road, Altavista, VA 24517.

“ Dear Jane & Family,
I was so sorry to read about Lula's passing. I have such fond memories of visiting with Sam, Ada & her in their home. They made me feel very welcome when Willie and I married. I pray God will comfort and keep you at this most sorrowful time.

With love,
Diane Callahan Jones

“ Jane, I'm Edna and Kenneth Johnson's daughter, Kathy. Scott told me about Lula's death, and I send my sympathies to you. I remember Mom and I riding down to Altavista and seeing your Mom and Lula. I think it was in the early 2000's. I know Lula was special to your family.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!
