“ I first met Carroll when he drove a truck for my Dad at Lane Company many years ago. I recently became reacquainted with him through school activities with our kids. He was a loving husband, a wonderful father and a Godly man. He will be greatly missed. Prayers for God's peace for you all, Gail, Rachel, Nikki, and JoJo.

“ I have enjoyed keeping up with the family through Carroll's Facebook postings. You could tell how much he cared for his family, and that God was at the center of his life. I grieve his loss from this world, but rejoice in knowing we'll see him again one day!! I remember years ago, getting to ride in one of the "big rigs" with him briefly. Our family will continue to pray for y'all in the days ahead.
