

Cecil Decker

March 11, 1943 - November 15, 2011

Cecil Clovis Decker, Jr., 68, of Lynchburg, died Tuesday, November 15, 2011 in Nelson County doing his job of excavating and playing in the dirt. He was born March 11, 1943 in Basic Townsite, Nevada a son of the late Cecil Clovis Decker, Sr. and Joyce Lemons Decker. Cecil was an equipment operator for Johnson Excavating, Past Exalted Ruler of B.P.O.E. in California, enjoyed mud bogging in his truck and proudly served his country as a veteran of the U.S. Army. He is survived by two sons, Chris Decker and his wife Shannon of Gladys and Tim Decker and his wife Kellie of Concord; eight grandchildren, Shawna, Scotty, Becca, Dani, Madison, Kalista, Brody and Tanner; two great-grandchildren, Jayden and River; one sister, Joyce D. Pritchard and her husband Bill of Prescott, Arizona; and a brother, Lou Delgado and his wife Sharon of McCloud, California A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Saturday, November 19, 2011 at Finch & Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Shelby Royal. The family will receive their friends one hour prior to the service and other times at the residence of Chris and Shannon Decker, 1048 Collins Ferry Road, Gladys.

Previous Events

Services

NOV 19. 2:00 PM.

Finch & Finch Chapel, Altavista