

Christine Lobue

January 2, 2026

Christine Helen Lobue, 76, of Lynch Station died Friday, January 2, 2026 at Westminster Canterbury of Lynchburg. She was the wife of Michael Anthony Lobue for fifty-four years.

She was born May 21, 1949 in Texas, a daughter of the late Robert McPherson Hood and Helen Louise Voeste Hood. Christine was a devoted homemaker who enjoyed arts and crafts. In addition to her husband, she is survived by one son, Eric Lobue and his wife, Cynthia of California; a daughter-in-law, Amy Lobue of Kentucky; two brothers, John Hood and his wife, Irene of Texas and James Hood and his wife, Pat of Texas; one sister, Peggy Baker of Texas; one special grandson, Michael Lobue; a number of nieces and nephews; and special friends, Barbara and Steve Richter of Lynch Station.

She was preceded in death by a son, Peter Anthony Lobue.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider your local animal shelter.

Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista is in charge of arrangements.

“ Mike and family,

*We are saddened to learn that Chris has passed. She was one of a kind,
Who would always let us know what she was thinking! Her crafts were welcome especially soap and we still have the lovebirds on the Christmas tree each year. We are no in North Carolina and will not be able to travel to visit.. may God give you the strength needded in the coming days*
