“ *To Lynn, and all of Cliff's wonderful family and friends. There's nothing we can say or do to make these days any easier. Cliff and I were, as he would say, "Brothers from different Mothers"! He was my best friend; and our hearts, like yours, are shattered. I'll catch up to you down the road, my Brother. May our Good Lord bless you and yours. Love you always!! “I had the pleasure of working with Cliff on the board of the Rustburg Dixie Softball League in the late 80s and 90s. Our friendship continued after softball. I am thankful to have been a part of his life.
Love and prayers to Lynn and children.
