“*Though I have been away from Lynch Station more than ten years, I will always remember and treasure the memories of Dale. Whether singing in the choir or in the fellowship hall, she was always wearing a glistening smile that forever brought joy to every heart there. Even singing and our conversations in the foyer after the Sunday service made one wish to stay and talk all day. She will endlessly be remembered, not simply by me but from all who had the pleasure of worshiping with you.
I'll see you when I get home.*

“ Dale was one of the kindest, sweetest people I've had the pleasure of knowing. She was one of those people that even in the most stressful time would just look at you and make you smile. I feel very lucky to have known her and to have been able to see her sweet smile so many times. It breaks my heart to think of how she will be missed by so many people, but her gentle nature lives on thru her daughters. God gained a great angel in Dale for sure! Jeff Giles

“ Dale was, without a doubt, one of the most influential women of my childhood (and, as it turns out, my adulthood). She cared for me like I was her own daughter, and I felt that, even then. Looking back, I so very much cherish those days I spent with her and Audrey Copes, not knowing how much those times would mean to me in the future and how they would shape my ideas as a parent. And now with Dale gone, I feel my childhood has truly ended. After all these years, when I would see her, the sparkle in her eyes always reminded me of the good times I spent in her loving care. I'll miss her cheerful greeting to me: "Hey, shugga, how's my girl?!" I love you dearly, Dale, and I'm looking forward to the day I'll see your sweet, smiling face again. Prayers for God's comfort and peace for you all - Steve, Stephanie, Jennifer, everyone.

“ I met Dale in the early 1970s when I first started working. We worked in the office together at Klopman Mills. She became a true friend to me, almost like a sister. We never had an argument. We got our jobs done and still had time to carry on a bunch of foolishness. I will never forget her. We had a special friendship that few people ever experience. My deepest sympathy goes out to Steve, Stephanie and Jennifer. The Bible tells us that those in Christ will meet again when this life is over. I will see you on the other side Dale. Jimmie Worley
