“ The best grandmother in the world. I remember the time she took me and my younger sister Deborah outside to play in the rain with dish soap to make ALOT of bubbles. She had the sweetest voice and an infectious laugh and a beautiful smile. I call her voicemail now to hear her voice. I love and miss her very much.

My memory of you mom, there are so many the one the most is when Halloween in grade school. When she would dress up as a witch and and come into the room asking for me by name and u had no idea who it was at first. I just thought it was done crazy lady lol. I know it's hard my mom passed away six years ago last month. To the same thing 😭
