“ Few people would remember that Tom, Sam Farson, Doug Gibson and myself sang in Churches at revivals while we were members of Riceville Baptist Church. That was a long time ago. I lost touch with him after I left home. I hope he had a full and happy life. I am sorry for his loss and will pray for his family during this time.

*Sincerely,
Eddie Adams*

“ Deepest sympathy to the Hutcherson Family. Tom was a childhood buddy. Have been remembering all the times we had growing up. From Mrs. Florence's Sunday School class to drag racing and of course, in the tobacco fields. Oh the stories we could tell... So sorry for your loss.

Eddie Tom reached out to me with a phone call a few years ago when he lived outside of Christiansburg. We talked a long while about life as children in Straightstone and our lives now. It was very much a conversation of love and respect for one another. I knew that he moved back home, but didn't realize that he was sick. We bonded over that phone call in a way that I cherish. Rest in peace my friend.
