

Edward Noel Plymale

January 8, 1951 - August 1, 2014

Edward Noel Plymale, 63, of Pittsville died Friday, August 1, 2014 at Lynchburg General Hospital.

He was born January 8, 1951 in Altavista, a son of the late Roy David Plymale and Dorothy May Tolbert Plymale. He was a past member of the Altavista Church of Christ, a former officer with the Altavista Police Department for 13 years and a self-employed general contractor. Ed loved spending time with his grandkids and teaching them about the great outdoors.

Ed is survived by his girlfriend, Brenda Witt of Lynchburg; two sons, Justin Plymale and his wife Mindy and Jonathan Plymale and his girlfriend Shannon Andrews all of Evington; a sister, Carolyn Sain and her husband Walter of Burlington, NC; five grandchildren, Dylan, Aiden, Caleb, Ryan and Hailey.

He was preceded in death by a granddaughter, Laynee.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Monday, August 4, 2014 at the Altavista Church of Christ by Lory Brafford with interment to follow in the Plymale Family Cemetery, Pittsville.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that those wishing to make memorials consider donating in the memory of Dylan Plymale's Papa to Rustburg Dixie

Youth Baseball - World Series, Attn. Greg Ware, 172 Lazy Creeks Dr.,
Rustburg, VA 24588.

“ I was sorry to read about the passing Edward. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you for the loss of your loved one. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-Do not be amazed at this, for the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life” Imagine a resurrection back to life and right here on earth.--(Ps.37:29)-“The righteous themselves will possess the earth. And they will reside forever upon it”. Jesus in (John 5:28) was relaying a promise from his heavenly Father-(Jehovah-(Ps.83:18)) who at (Titus 1:2) says is a " God who can not lie" Well I hope that you will be able to draw some comfort from these scriptural thoughts as I did.
