

Elizabeth Ewing Moore

January 7, 1931 - May 6, 2022

Elizabeth Ewing Moore, 91, of Bowling Green, Virginia passed away Friday, May 6, 2022 at her home in Bowling Green. She was the wife of the late Ottie Jackson Moore, Sr. for sixty-six years.

She was born January 7, 1931 in Norfolk, Virginia. Her parents were the late George Malcolm Thomas Ewing and Olivia Booker Ewing and her childhood home was in Nelson County. After graduating from RPI, she was an X-Ray Technician at MCV Hospital in Richmond. Upon the birth of her first child, she left MCV to stay home and raise her two children. She later returned to work in the Caroline County Public school system once both of her children were in school. She was a devoted wife to her husband and devoted mother to her children, always putting them first.

She is survived by one son, Ottie Jackson "Jack" Moore, Jr. of Toano, Virginia; and one daughter, Mary Moore Madison of Bowling Green, Virginia.

A private graveside service was held Saturday, May 14, 2022 at Wesleybury United Methodist Church Cemetery in Gladys, Virginia where she joined her husband. The service was conducted by Pastor William Duganne, a former pastor of Bowling Green United Methodist Church, where she was a member.

Because of her great love for MCV Hospital and St. Jude Children's Research

Hospital, the family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider the Children's Hospital Foundation-VCU, P.O. Box 980693, Richmond, VA 23298 or St. Jude Children's Research Hospital, 501 St. Jude Place, Memphis, TN 38105.

Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Gladys is in charge of arrangements.

“ I will always remember when ever your mom would visit with my mom. I was so I'm awe of her long, beautiful nails. Most of I remember her talks with me when I was at school and needed a reassurance hug- she was there. She was a caring, wonderful person.
