

Florence Hughes

March 21, 1916 - December 9, 2011

Florence Lee Hughes, formerly of Myrtle Lane in Altavista departed this Earth on Friday, December 9, 2011 at Roanoke Memorial Hospital. Mrs. Hughes was a long time resident of Altavista. She spent the last ten years of her life living in Roanoke where she moved to be near her daughter. Most recently, she resided in the assisted living facility of Our Lady of the Valley. She was preceded in death by her husband of many years, Dr. Porter Anderson Hughes, a well know dentist in Altavista. Mrs. Hughes was born Florence Lee VanPelt on March 21, 1916 in Long Branch, New Jersey. She and her husband met at Georgetown University while he was attending dental school. After they married, they settled in Altavista where they raised their family. She spent many years working for the Campbell County School System until her retirement. She was a long time member of Lane Memorial United Methodist Church where she sang in the choir. She is survived by a son, John Porter Hughes and friend Kathryn Hatcher of Fredericksburg; a daughter, Dianne Bradshaw and her husband Keith of Salem; six grandchildren, Trey Porter Hughes and Alisa Faye Hughes both of Fredericksburg, Stephanie Lee Bradshaw, Tyler Anderson Bradshaw, Kelsey Dianne Bradshaw, and Clayton Hughes Bradshaw all of Salem. A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Tuesday, December 13, 2011 at Lane Memorial United Methodist Church by the Rev. Alan Combs with interment to follow in Green Hill Cemetery. The family will receive friends from 7-8:30 p.m., Monday at Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista. The family would like to thank

Dr. Stephen Morgan for his continuous care, the staff at Our Lady of the Valley for the wonderful and loving care she received during her stay there and the outstanding nurses she had in the Palliative Care Unit at Roano
