

Frances Woodall Nichols

February 3, 1930 - April 14, 2024

Frances Woodall Nichols, 94, of 209 Ridge Street, Hurt died Sunday, April 14, 2024 at Heritage Green Assisted Living of Lynchburg. She was the wife of the late Roy Lee Nichols.

She was born February 3, 1930 in Campbell County, a daughter of the late Flurnoy Woodall and Sally Floyd Carr Woodall. She was a member of New Prospect Baptist Church. She planted flowers at Hurt Elementary School for many years and loved gardening at home. She loved the beach and made all the holidays special for the family.

She is survived by three daughters, Janet Beckner of Lynchburg, Susan Gilliam and her husband, Rob of Lynch Station and Connie Slusher of Altavista; a sister, Katie Dalton of Rustburg; nine grandchildren, Nikki Elder (Mike), Kelly Gardner (Brad), Ryan Hunley (Apryl), Holly Crews (Jess), John-Paul Slusher, Michaela Lukin, Kay Oken (Bob), Beth Gilliam Phillips and John Gilliam; fourteen great grandchildren; one great-great grandchild with one more on the way in August; and a number of nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by seven sisters, Mary Irby, Ethel Castle, Ruth Foster, Edna Barnard, Dorothy Woodall, Sarah Moore, and Gertrude Rowland; and a brother, Walter Woodall.

A graveside service will be conducted at 3:00 p.m., Thursday, April 18, 2024 at Green Lawn Cemetery, Hurt by the Rev. Brady Willis.

The family will receive friends following the graveside service at the residence.

Finch & Finch Funeral and Cremation Service, Altavista is in charge of arrangements.
