

Garry (Eddie) Moore

January 23, 1986 - April 21, 2012

Garry Edwin Moore, 26, of 1389 Hummingbird Lane, Spout Spring, died Saturday, April 21, 2012 as a result of an automobile accident. He was born January 23, 1986 in Lynchburg, a son of Garry Max Moore of Lynchburg and Beverly Hogan Howell of Hurt. Eddie was employed at BWXT in the Quality Control Department, an avid golfer, a University of Georgia Bulldogs football fan, a NASCAR fan and a huge fan of country music singer Eric Church. He was a very likeable and outgoing person who was full of life and very loyal and patriotic to his country and flag. He was proud to be an American. In addition to his parents, he is survived by his younger brother, Aaron Taylor Moore of Lynchburg; his PaPa, Edwin Hogan and Grandma Nita Hogan of Altavista; aunt, Glenna H. Floeck and her husband, Chuck of King George; step-father, Terry Howell; two step-sisters, Raven and Jeannie Howell both of Gretna; his loyal and faithful canine friend, PacMan; and a number of great-aunts, great-uncles, and cousins. He was preceded in death by his maternal grandmother, Della Hogan Dalton; paternal grandparents, Aurelia Taylor Moore and Max E. Moore; and paternal great-grandparents, Hubert Taylor and Anna Dunn Taylor. A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Friday, April 27, 2012 at Mead Memorial United Methodist Church by the Rev. George Hatmaker with interment to follow in Altavista Memorial Park. The family will receive their friends from 7-8:30 p.m. Thursday at Mead Memorial United Methodist Church, Lynchburg and other times at the residence. The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider the Campbell County Humane Society, P.O. Box 659, Rustburg, VA 24588. Finch & Finch, Inc. Funeral and
