“ I will never forget the times my wife and I stopped on our way home from Roanoke. We always talked for hours and spent the night once. Took you and Bob to his favorite pizza place. Your smile and laughter was so much like my moms and I'll miss both of you forever. See you in Heaven. Alan Graham

“ This beautiful lady takes me back many years. We were neighbors all of our adolescent years. My Dad rode to work at Burlington with Mr. Graham. Mama made a beautiful formal gown for one occasion (maybe graduation) for Gaynelle
