“ I have a memory of George from my childhood. There were many of us as children that would line up at the store that he owned to catch the school bus. Like most kids, we would go in the store and spend our money on chips and drinks. Sometimes the bus would come before we had a chance to pay for our goodies and George would tell all of us to get what we wanted, don't miss the bus, pay me later. I don't know of anyone who didn't go straight to the store after school to pay him. He ALWAYS trusted us and we LOVED him for it. He was one of the most kind hearted men I knew.

“ *George was a kind and caring friend. I have memories of him and Ollie coming to Brights on Saturday nights when I was a child. Later I visited in their home in Altavista, and then in Pauley's Island. My family and I vacationed in Myrtle Beach with them many years ago. I always think of them with pleasant memories.
