“ I regret I could not attend the service. My mother, Martha, really appreciated Geraldine coming to my daddy, Charles, service; 16 years ago. Geraldine and daddy will always have a place in our hearts. May God's Blessings be with all the family.

“ *Geraldine;
Words cannot express my feelings at this time. Although my heart is saddened by your passing. I am happy that you are at last reunited with your beloved Jake. I am some what jealous of the angels that they have you now. Thank you for coming into my families and my life and making it better by just knowing you. Thank you for the love you showed Dakota and for what you meant to him. I won't say good-bye, Just until we meet again. Say Hi to Jesus and Pappy and Jake and if you have the time and happen to run into my aunt Margaret say hi to her for me and give her a big hug and a kiss for me. I know you never met her here on earth, but you'll recognize her when you see her. She will look like me and have a beautiful smile like yours. Love you.*

“ I am going to miss your smile and laughter. My heart weeps over you leaving but rejoices knowing that Jesus called you home to your mansion with your beloved Jake who has been waiting for you. I love you dear Geraldine and I hope yours and Jake's mansion is next to God's throne. I will hold dear in my heart the memories left there by your footprints. I thank God that He put you, Jake and the family in my life. I pray that for the marriage supper of the Lamb that you will bring your famous dish of macaroni and tomatoes, see you then.
