“ Sorry to hear of your loss. Have no real stories to share. Glenn and I were friends from grade school thru high school. Our paths never crossed after high school. Glenn was all ways pleasant and a great person to grow up with during our learning years.

“ Sorry for your loss. The weekend before he went into the Air Force we had fun. 5 of us in Rick Delps sports car racing on the Christmas Village road like crazy kids. We drove to Reading to see a Frank Sinatra detective movie. There was a scene in it where he was interviewing a gay witness, very serious. We all lost it, belly laughs out loud in an almost empty theater, you had to be there, I guess. That was the last time I saw him, summer of '68. Used to love goofing off with him at Tulpy band practice as well. What a great guy. I wish he could have made some of our reunions.

“ I am saddened to hear of Glenn's passing. Glenn always had a smile and wave for the parents every morning and every afternoon. You could hear him say good morning to the student boarding the bus each morning. What a wonderful bus driver he was. We will miss Glenn! His family is in our thoughts and prayers at this time.
