“ Too many wonderful memories of my friend and rock Lois. She was the glue that held me together when my husband passed in 2010. She helped with his funeral, getting a wood barn made for his remains, my getting ready to move to MS, put up with my crying every 20 minutes or so, helped get the horses loaded for the move. I could not have done that with out her. Sitting her on Thanksgiving day, I remember Thanksgiving at her and Chuck's home and my "special dishes without onions." So many, many more. RIP Lois until we meet again. Sandy Dean
