Greg Robinson, 51 of 5350 Oxford Road, Chatham was called to his heavenly home Wednesday, January 12, 2022 at Sovah Healthcare Danville. He was the husband of Sue Dalton Robinson for twenty-nine years.

Greg was born July 19, 1970 in Danville, to Rudy & Henrietta Robinson of Brosville. He was a member of River Oak Church of God, where he served in ministry.

Greg was an Ordained Bishop with the Church of God Cleveland, TN, with a heart for biblical teaching and leading all to Christ. Greg received his Bachelor of Christian Ministries with emphasis on Biblical Studies from Lee University in 2009, a Master of Divinity with Emphasis in Theological Studies from Liberty University School of Divinity in 2013, and a Ph.D. ABD in Renewal Theology and Christian history from Regent University School of Divinity in 2019.

He was employed as an Adjunct Professor of Religion and Humanities at Danville Community College. He served as a lead Pastor of Danville Christian Fellowship and Living Waters in Clover. For those closest to him he was known for being a "social butterfly," he never met a stranger, had an incredible sense of humor, and always made a way to work God's goodness into a conversation.

Greg is survived by his wife of twenty-nine years, Sue, his three children, Elizabeth Robinson, Matthew Robinson and Joseph Robinson; his parents, Rudy and Henrietta Robinson of Brosville; a sister, Susan Amaya (Rudy) of Georgia; two nephews, Spencer and Patrick Price; one niece, Brooke Schultz (Trevor); along with numerous extended family members.

“ We are so sorry for the loss of this great man. He was a wonderful friend and faithful to my father in law, Neal Isom, even after he left Christian Fellowship. The last thing I will remember about him is at Neal’s funeral when he told the entire congregation what was in the purple bag(Toby’s ashes) and how much he thought poor Toby was a demon dog. He always ran from Toby. Hugs and prayers to all his family and friends. He will be greatly missed

Greg was in the Tunstall band program his entire high school career. Greg was our friend and brother. For over thirty years our "band family" continues to meet during Christmas. We missed Greg this year, but we prayed for him daily for three weeks. Greg, you have finished your Earthly boot camp earlier than we expected. We will accept God's decision to call you up to his heavenly army. A promotion well deserved my brother.

I had the honor of calling Greg family for a short period of time, but he was always a friend. There was never a time when I saw him without a smile on his face or a kind word to say. I still treasure the times spent with our little group just starting out as young couples making lasting memories . My heart is broken for the family, as he where called home way to soon. May their comfort be in knowing he is with our Lord and we will see him again one day.

Greg, As you completed this earthly journey know you touched so many lives and will live forever in so many hearts.

Greg will be missed. His love for Christ and helping others see that wonderful love was amazing. He preached my Dad's (Joe Knight) funeral. Greg gave us so much comfort when he talked about that now Daddy was in Heaven. Daddy is giving Greg the biggest hug ever in Heaven. I believe we will see them soon. God is coming for his people. Everything in this generation that's happening Is leading to the second coming of Christ. Now as my nephew (Lee Knight) will tell you that's it's time to listen for the trumpet. Greg was truly a loving disciple for Christ who is now in Heaven with my Dad. Love in Christ, Norma Jo Prekker and Family
