“ John, your mother seemed to enjoy visiting you at the office. Must have been proud to see her son in the big office overlooking Dulles Airport. Her dedication to the co-op program when she was a teacher shows how much she cared about helping others. My condolences to you and Sally, Evan, Ross, and Daniel.

My Aunt Gyneth was the most gracious, kind, fun loving and beautiful lady I ever knew. She could light up a room with her smile and her laughter was like music. Many years ago, I had the good fortune of living with her and my cousin John, for a while and that time will always remain one of the most wonderful memories of my life. She was a terrific cook, a sweet Aunt and a very good friend. My life is richer for having loved and been loved by my Aunt Gyneth and I will miss her always. Didi
