Karen, so sorry to hear about Ingram. I wish I could have gone to see him. Mama thought about him often and so did I. She would send him money on different occasions. Will never forget the times we used to have when we were kids. Aunt Judy sent me a picture of Me, Ingram, you, and Eddie. Ingram and I were both holding these old dogs that hung around the house there. She sent that picture right before she passed. Love you and Bill, would love to see you. I'm staying with cousin Carol until I get my place set up next to Ma & Pa's house. Come see me if you can. Phone 434-251-5168.

So sorry to hear of Ingram's death, I can remember when he was born. His parents lived with me and my Mom when they were first married and they were such fun. Then I worked with Ingram at the telephone company. Rest in peace...
