“ My heart is absolutely broken over the loss of my kind and sweet brother, Stephen. He is no longer suffering and I have no doubt that he is rejoicing in Heaven today with vision, voice and a new body. Amen! I will miss our visits and talks; however, I know that we will see each other again and oh what a glorious day that will be. My husband, Carleton loved Stephen like a brother and dearly enjoyed their Sunday outings for breakfast, going to Stephen's former home in Halifax and visiting with his friends there, going to the park, Walmart, etc. Rest in peace, my dear brother, Stephen.

With Love,

Laura Eades Dudley

And after you have suffered a little while, the God of all grace, who has called you to his eternal glory in Christ, will himself restore, confirm, strengthen, and establish you. ~1 Peter 5:10

I remember Stephen coming for a visit on Sundays and have his pet pig in the back end of his truck I said somebody going to steal that pig and cook it. Thats was one of the memories but there are many more he was a special uncle and will truly be missed.

“ Such a kind man he has always been to me, his wife watched me and my sisters when I was 7 years old while our parents worked and he was always so good to us. Later in life I met and married his nephew Durane, and he was just as kind then as he was years ago. May you rest in peace and sending prayers of comfort to all the family.
