Dig was a wonderful man. I lived across the street from him and Mildred until I was 13. He was a great Dad to his girls and loved them with everything he had. Above all he loved God and was a good Christian man. He had a beautiful voice that he used to phrase his Lord and Saviour. He will be sadly missed by all who knew him. Losing your father is one of life's saddest moments Teresa and Gwen. May you find peace in your precious memories of him.
