

Inez Ramsey Swain

June 9, 1937 - August 28, 2021

Inez Ramsey Swain, 84, of Motley died Saturday, August 28, 2021 at Franklin Health and Rehabilitation Center. She was the wife of the late Earl Jefferson Swain for fifty-three years.

She was born June 9, 1937 in Altavista, a daughter of the late Lawrence Hogan and Kate Farmer Hogan. She was a member of Motley United Methodist Church, a retired employee of of Universal Electric, and volunteered at the Altavista Thrift Store. Inez enjoyed reading her Bible, going to yardsales with her niece, and playing with her dog, Squirrel. Like her mama, she was a collector of many beautiful clothes and purses.

She is survived by two sons, Lynn Swain and his wife, Alice of Moneta and Richard Swain and his wife, Stephanie of Myrtle Beach, SC; a granddaughter, Jennifer Hall and her husband, Junior of Spout Spring; two sisters, Shirley Nichols of Altavista and Gertrude Fifer of Hurt; a sister-in-law, Paula Walden of Rustburg; a special nephew, Danny Fifer of Hurt; special nieces, Angie Hutcherson of Leesville and Cindy "Tootsie" Sigler of Hurt; special great niece and nephew, Josh and Chelsey Hutcherson; and a special friend, Bobby Clay.

She was preceded in death by four sisters, Frances Hembree, Margie Fulcher, Rose Taylor, and Ann Gregory; two brothers, James M. Hogan and Wayne Walden; and her beloved dog, Tippy.

A funeral service will be conducted at 2:00 p.m., Thursday, September 2, 2021 at Finch and Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Tim Lane.

The family will receive friends prior to the service, 12:30 until 1:45 p.m. at the funeral home.
