

James Edward Maddox

August 19, 1936 - July 24, 2025

James Edward Maddox, 88, of 500 Greenhouse Road, Rustburg, died July 24, 2025, at his residence, surrounded by family. He was married to the late Carolyn Dews Maddox.

He was born on August 19, 1936, in Hurt to the late Lonza Havington Maddox and Dollie Maddox Ayers. After graduation, James served in the Army National Guard Division and later retired from Burns Security Services as a Field Service Supervisor. He loved all things outdoors: working in the yard, spending time in his tool shed, hunting on the farm, but most of all spending time with his family.

He is survived by two daughters, Rhonda M. Gubbins and her husband Paul, of Raleigh, NC, and Jan M. Bell and her husband, Richard of Rustburg; two grandsons, Michael E. Gubbins, of Athens, GA, and D. Grant Gubbins and his wife Danielle, of Raleigh, NC, a great-granddaughter, Aubrey Lee Gubbins, of Raleigh, NC, and a step-grandson, Justin L. Bell and his wife Mary, of Rustburg.

He was preceded in death by his wife of 57 years, Carolyn Dews Maddox, four brothers, Jimmy Ray, Wayne, Earl, and David Maddox, and one sister, Jeanette M. Burnette.

A funeral service will be conducted at Finch & Finch Funeral Chapel, Altavista, by Reverends D. Grant Gubbins and James Manuel on Sunday July 27, 2025 at 2:00 p.m., with a private interment following at St. John Pentecostal Holiness Church.

The family will receive friends at Finch & Finch Funeral & Cremation Service on Saturday from 6:30 until 8:00 p.m. and other times at the residence.

The family suggests those wishing to make memorials consider the American Kidney Fund, 7020 Albemarle Road, Charlotte, NC 28227 or North Raleigh Ministries, 9650 Strickland Road, Ste 161, Raleigh, NC 27615.
