“ It was truly a privilege and a gift to become a sister to such a one as our Jim/Bill, as we lovingly called him. Just the existence of such a nickname tells what an enjoyable person he is, and yet his fun was never an unwholesome variety in my time of knowing him. JB rested in the peace of the Lord perhaps more than any person I have met, and demonstrated a love of life and care for his fellow man in the process. With a twinkle in his eye and a joke or story in his pocket, he charmed us all. I know he will be watching over his fine grandsons as they finish growing into their God-given talents to become a testament to his memory.

“ Rest in Peace Jim. Jim left a lot of family and friends that love him dearly, but he's now with a lot of family and friends that love him dearly and he is surrounded by the love of the Lord. It is Tuesday night that I am typing this and C.S.I. is on television. I knew not to call during C.S.I., but I sure wish I could call Jim now and interrupt his show. It would feel good to hear his voice once more. To all of Jim's loved ones, Jim and I talked many a time about our limited stay in this world. He felt he was living his life the best he could to please the Lord and he was ready to meet Jesus anytime the good Lord called him home. I'm taking comfort in that and I hope you can find comfort soon.

“ Its hard to see our family go away, one by one, although it is to the best place ever, with Jesus and the rest of our families. The Prebbles have always meant so much to our family and always will. Our memories are always of the best kind, having fun together. Love from all of us - Judi, Lewis, David and Irene

“ I was so sorry to read about the passing of James your loved one. So I wanted to take this time to express my condolence to you. I wanted to share a thought with you that comforted me when I lost a family member in death. The man Job in (Job 14:14) asks" If an able-bodied man dies can he live again?". Happily Jesus answers in (John 5:28,29)-" Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life"
