“ There are just too many memories we shared. My favorite would be how you were just always there for me, when no one else was. How you loved my two children like your own, especially the bond you and Ryder shared. Our monthly trips to Richmond, & stopping at ‘ the good goodwill ‘ our near death experience with the crazy flying chair, that crashed into my car while you were pregnant. The many times we went camping, & fishing, and shopping. Idk what imma do without you. & the kids already miss ‘ Aunt Jessi’ like crazy.

“ I am still not believing that she is gone. She was such a nice and kind person. Every time that I her she still had that smile on her face, regardless of what she was going through. Fly high Jessi! You have earned your wings.
