“ Fond memories of wrestling with dad on the floor in front of the old black and white TV watching the first moon landing in 1969 and dad telling me to adjust the rabbit ears because he couldn't see the astronauts. Or maybe I was the reason he couldn't see the TV...LoL. So many memories, some good and some not so much. We strive to be perfectionist in an imperfect world, but no one is perfect. Some things can never be forgotten, but as a Christian I forgave and as a son I still Loved. Dad loved the Lord, loved his family and loved people in general. I am thankful he got to know and enjoy the grandchildren he loved so much. He can now be at peace and not have to endure the pain and suffering from so many medical complications. I will always remember him for being a good hearted, God loving man that never met a stranger. I may have missed out on a lot with my dad, but I'm thankful I didn't miss out getting to know who he was. You will always be remembered dad. I Love You Daddy.
