“ When the walking trail at English Park opened, I saw J.D. on his tractor and I stopped to chat with him. He said, Cathy you be careful walking on this trail because I've seen bears here. I always thought of his words when walking the trail. I've known him since I started my job as a dental assistant at Dr. Frank West's office way back in 1990 and he was a true gentleman and such a caring man. I will truly miss seeing him and hearing him impart some of his wisdom when we chatted. Love and Prayers to all the family.

“ Mr Adams was one of the nicest customers that I had at Fisher auto parts. He needed a battery for his tractor cause they couldn't get out of the road. I went back to the store after hours and got one helped him and Danny put it in. He tried to pay me for doing that. I told him thank you for your business and I told him wasn't going to take any money. I told him let's just say if I need a favor I'll get you to help me. He shook my hand and said I wont forget.
