“ *Brenda and Stephen,
I know you must be missing such a great man that touched so many lives by giving of himself to the community and others in need.
He was my favorite uncle and he always had a comment that would just crack you up. He will be missed by many people. I only imagine how hard it must be emotionally to lose both your parents so quickly. You must feel lost. But both of you will find your way with the help of family and spouse support. You know both of them are looking down from heaven smiling at you. So please hold your head high during these difficult times. If you feel a little nudge when you are alone then you know that is both of them lovingly giving you the courage for another day. They were both great people who produced awesome kids. He will be missed dearly going forward in life. Marvin was a gentle, intelligent, caring, giving, and humorous man. I am proud to call him uncle because I learned so much by his walk with God and leading by example. I will always remember his smile which was just so kind and welcoming. No words can describe how great this man was to all people he encountered. I send my love and prayers to both of you.*

“ *You are in our thoughts and prayers.
John and Doris were a very special couple and we enjoyed our time with them as members of Covenant and seeing and talking with them when we ran into them shopping.
John always had a funny wit and made us laugh and could outwalk us all.

“ John will be missed by his church family at Marsh. He loved his church and greeted everyone that came through the door with a big smile. He was also a very sociable and caring person. Heavens gain is our loss and I will remember him for his kindness, his smile and his generosity to his church and those in need.

“ Brenda and Stephen, Wayne and I were deeply saddened to learn of your father's passing. He was truly a lovely man who made everyone smile and happy to be in his presence. We pray that many happy memories of your years spent together will sustain you during these difficult days and the knowledge that he is now with his God and knowing Marvin he is having an amazing conversation with him. God Bless you both and all your family. Sending you all our love and prayers. Roz, Wayne and Family.

“ We will miss John at Marsh Memorial. I have fond memories of John's support of William Campbell activities when I was a student there in the 1950s. We called him Marvin. Long ago, but still remembered. A pleasant surprise when he and Doris came to Marsh. You all have my deepest sympathies.

Thoughts and prayers,

“ John was one of the nicest people I've known. He was one of those people that did not know stranger and made everyone around him comfortable. He was fun to chat with and just to be around. He was in my Sunday School class and was very knowledgeable about the Bible. He will be missed by many that knew him. A great man he was.

“ The Bible says who can find a faithful man. Marvin Webber exemplified this character to God, his wife, and his children. He was a man of good deeds and being there for those who depended on him. WELL DONE GOOD AND FAITHFUL SERVANT. You will be missed for your articulate conversations and amazing spirit. Blessed to call you uncle. 💙
