“ *To The Bailey Family,
"Miss Nita", as I always called her was a very special member of our church ! She always had a smile to share and a kind word to say. I loved her dearly! My sisters and I did specials in the church, and she always had a hug and an uplifting comment waiting for us at "fellowship time". She always made sure I had a hug from her. I will miss her deeply and will never forget her. Her place on "her pew" will sadly be vacant, but it will be a reminder of her genuine heart and personality.*

“ My deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to all of Nita's family and friends. She was a wonderful lady to know. I worked with Nita at Simplimatic until she retired. She was a great co-worker and became a great friend to me. I am so blessed to have known her. I'm glad that she is no longer in any pain. May God be with you at this most difficult time.
