“ Judy was a classmate at CPHS and a sweet friend during those teenage years. She was so beautiful...tall slender blonde with an infectious laugh. My deep sympathy to her family and friends. Rest in peace, Judy.

“ *Judy was my sister and the hero of my childhood. She would take me for fun weekends and show me how big the world could be. Later when I was grown I could always depend on her to be my champion. I hate it that we were so often separated while on earth, but she will never lose the place she has in my heart. Love you Sis!-
