May her Lord and Savior bring you the comfort and strength it will take here on earth to continue on without her and may knowing that she has a new body that will experience pain no more bring you rest. God bless you during this difficult time.*

I worked with Judy at Miller & Rhoades downtown Lynchburg. We became best of friends, she was like a sister to me. I have not seen her in over 30 years but her memory will live in my heart forever. I was sadden to hear of her passing and wanted all of the family to know that my thoughts and prayers are with you. She was beautiful both inside and out.
