“ We always loved being in the presence of Aunt Katie Mae. She kept us all entertained by her stories of her and her 11 siblings. When she was around, my Dad often had tears rolling down his face from laughing so hard. I am so glad that she talked my Mom into going out with my Dad more than 60 years ago. I know they are having a grand reunion in heaven this week seeing her again!

“ We want to send our deepest sympathy in your loss. May The Lord comfort you during this time and in the days ahead. You are in our thoughts and prayers.

When I was young and we visited my relatives I remember the kindness and funny ways Katie had. After years,my husband and I became a neighbor and we now reflect back on the many memories we have.
