

Kenneth Lambert Cheatham

October 29, 1947 - December 19, 2012

Kenneth Lambert Cheatham, 65, of 862 One Mile Rd., Evington died Wednesday, December 19, 2012 at his home. He was the husband of Rebecca Dotson Cheatham.

He was born October 29, 1947 in Lynchburg, a son of the late Frank Cheatham and Hazel Lind Cheatham. Mr. Cheatham loved bike riding with his wife and friend Bud Slusher, fishing, and was a voracious reader. He was extremely proud of his children and grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a son, Zach Cheatham and his wife Lucy of Lynchburg; two daughters, Beth Magenbauer and her husband Brett of Forest and Emily Blanchfield and her husband John of Maywood, NJ; a sister, Joanne Burgess of Roswell, GA; and eight grandchildren, Olivia, Garrett, Juliana, Jillian, Isabella, John, Ian, and Ivy.

A memorial service will be conducted at 11:00 a.m., Saturday, December 22, 2012 at Finch and Finch Chapel, Altavista by the Rev. Russell Cheatham.

The family will receive friends at the residence.

The family suggests that those wishing to make memorials consider a charity of choice.
