“ Life gave me the chance to know Kevin, he was an amazing fellow , knowing him first and later working with both him and his brother was very much a blessing. I watched this man bear once through his own ailments to achieve a goal that no one ,myself included nor the toughest man around could ever accomplish,it was an amazing thing to witness, he had ambition like no one ive ever met ,he will be missed dearlyol coon dog

“ Many fond memories of Kevin. Visiting him when he was a little boy and usually I had a silver dollar for him and see that smile on his face. This past summer he was with us at the farm cabin or my house and planning his future. I am broken hearted. 💔 He loved those beautiful children. Heaven is a beautiful place ..during a heart attack I went there words cannot describe it. But God has a plan unknown to us. Keep the faith. Bootsy
