“ I will always remember Granny Peake taking us to the dance hall at New London. Flatfooting and old time music runs deep in my veins now, and those exciting memories are intertwined with memories of her presence. Rest in peace, Granny Peake.

Mrs. Peake was my neighbor and my friend. I have so many fond memories of her. During the summer I would be doing yard work...Eva would be sitting on her porch...I would have to take a break so I could talk to her. Her heart was so big...and she could always make me laugh! I remember how soft her hands were when I held them! I would visit her at the nursing home and she always thanked me for coming and told me she loved me!! I will treasure all those memories! God Bless her family at this difficult time! Heaven has another Angel!
